

Last modified Sun., January 15, 2006 - 01:33 AM

Originally created Sunday, January 15, 2006

FOOSBALL TOURNEY RAISES $20,000 FOR CHARITY

Above right: Louis Karastamatis (left) and Adriano Cesta of Canada slap hands as they compete Saturday in the 2006

Photos by BOB SELF/The Times-Union

Florida State Table-Soccer Championships held at Players Grille and Sports Bar on County Road 220 in Clay County. "We're struggling foosball players trying to make a living," Karastamatis said after he and Cesta lost their match.

Right: Competitor Cara Richardville of Jacksonville watches a match during a break between her matches Saturday afternoon. The tournament began Friday with players from the United States and Canada competing for $4,000 in prize money and trophies in three levels of competition. The event raised $20,541 for Quigley House, Clay County's domestic violence shelter.